

Let Me Know Your Ways

Hudson Taylor said, "We are changed by beholding." He may have had 2 Corinthians 3:18 in mind, "But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit." Isaiah was changed by beholding the glory of God, the awesome revelation of His holiness (Isa. 6:1-8).

When you come face to face with God's holy glory, you will do one of two things: run away or run to His grace for transformation. Ponder the prayer requests of Moses: "Let me know Your ways that I may know You, Show me Your glory, Go among us (Exo. 33:11-19, 34:5-10). Consider the price of speaking intimately with God friend to friend. Is the price worth the glory?

What heart attitudes does God need to transform, so that you can see all God's goodness and know Him as He really is? As you are convicted by the character of the Glory at whom you gaze, make Psalm 51:10-11 your prayer: "Renew my heart from glory to glory." Let Him search your heart as never before. Submit to heart-transplant surgery as He gives you a new heart of obedience and the fear of the Lord.

- Just between you and God, pray through this list item by item.
- Pause after each one to let the Holy Spirit convict of specific situations.
- Bring each one under the blood of Jesus, praying, "Father, forgive me for _____.
By your Spirit and for Your glory, renew in me a right spirit of _____.
I want this to be a new beginning of Your glory and Your Spirit unhindered in my life."

Look up in your Bible those Scripture verses God puts His finger on. For thorough heart-cleansing, you will want to spend time meditating on all these and others that God leads you to.

FATHER, LET ME KNOW YOUR WAYS.
SHOW ME YOUR GLORY.
GO AMONG US.
RENEW MY HEART FROM GLORY TO GLORY BY YOUR SPIRIT.

Lift up your heads, O gates,
 And be lifted up, O ancient doors,
 That the King of glory may come in!
 Who is this King of glory?
 The Lord strong and mighty,
 The Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O gates,
 And lift them up, O ancient doors,
 That the King of glory may come in!
 Who is this King of glory?
 The Lord of hosts,
 He is the King of glory. (Psa. 24:7-10)

Seek the times of refreshing that come from the presence of the Lord (Acts 3:19).

Thank Him for 1 John 1:9, as you

- Confess your sins and repent of falling short of living out His glory, knowing that He is faithful and just to forgive you.
- Confess that your risen glorious Savior and Lord took away all judgment and condemnation and cleanses you from all unrighteousness, and He has put His Spirit in you.

Thank God for the new thing that He is doing in your life.

Sing Him a song of love and joy. Present to Him the clean empty vessel of your life to fill with His Spirit. Pray always the prayer of Moses in Exodus 34:10, "Go along with us" (or better still, "Let us go with You"), ready for a holy overflow of praise, testimony, intercession, ministry, revival, and glory.
